(2) The security deposit may be made either in cash, Bank Guarantee, bonds or certificates endorsed in favour of the Government.

9. Power to refuse licence. — The Licensing Authority may, after giving the concerned dealer an opportunity of stating his case and for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to grant or renew a licence.

10. Contravention of conditions of licence. — (1) No holder of a licence issued under this Order or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf shall contravene any of the terms and conditions of the licence, and, if any, such holder or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf contravenes any of the said terms or conditions, then without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, his licence may be cancelled or suspended by order in writing of the Licensing Authority.

Provided that no order shall be made under this clause unless the licensee has been given a reasonable opportunity of stating his case against the proposed cancellation or suspension.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (1) of this clause, where a licensee has been convicted by a Court of Law in respect of contravention of any Order made under Section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (Central Act 10 1955) relating to foodstuffs including edible oilseeds and oils, the Licensing Authority may by order in writing cancel his licence:

Provided that where such conviction is set aside in any appeal or revision, the Licensing Authority may on application in Form 'A' by the person whose licence is cancelled, reissue the licence to such person.

11. Power to issue direction to dealers or any other person acting on his behalf. — The Licensing Authority or any other officer authorised by him, may from time to time, issue to any dealer or his agent or any other person acting on his behalf such order or direction regarding the purchase, maintenance of stock, storage, sale price disposal, delivery and distribution of foodstuffs as it may deem fit and every dealer or other person to whom any order or direction is issued, under any powers conferred by or under this Order shall comply with such order or direction.

12. Forfeiture of security deposit. — (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause 10, if the Licensing Authority is satisfied that the licensee has contravened any of the conditions of the licence and that a forfeiture of a security deposit is called for, it may after giving the licensee a reasonable opportunity of stating his case against the forfeiture, by order, forfeit the whole or any part of the security deposited by him and communicate a copy of the order to the licensee.

(2) The licensee shall, if the amount of security at any time falls short of the amount specified in clause 8, forthwith deposit further security to make up that amount on being required by the Licensing Authority to do so.

(3) Upon due compliance, by the licensee with all obligations under the licence, the amount of security or such part thereof, which is not forfeited as aforesaid, shall be returned to the licensee after the termination of the licence.

13. Appeal. — (1) Any person aggrieved by any order of the Licensing Authority refusing to grant or renew a licence or cancelling or suspending a licence or forfeiting a security deposited by the licensee under the provisions of this Order, may appeal to the Government within thirty days of the date of the receipt by him of such order.

(2) No order shall be made under this clause unless the aggrieved person has been given a reasonable opportunity of stating his case.

(3) Pending the disposal of an appeal, the Government may direct that the order refusing to renew a licence or the order cancelling or suspending a licence shall not take effect until the appeal is disposed off.

14. Power of entry, search, seizure etc. — (1) The Licensing Authority or any other officer authorised by it either by a general or special order in this behalf, may with such assistance, if any, as he thinks fit—

(a) require the owner, occupier or any other person in charge of any place, premises, vehicles or vessels in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder has been, is being or is about to be committed, to produce any book accounts or other documents showing transaction relating to such contraventions.

(b) enter, inspect or break open and search any place or premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this Order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder, has been, is being or is about to be committed;

(c) take or cause to be taken extracts from or copies of any documents showing transaction relating to such contraventions which are produced before him;

(d) search, seize and remove stocks of foodstuffs and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyance used in carrying the said foodstuffs in contravention of the provisions of this Order or of the conditions of the licence issued thereunder and thereafter take or authorise the taking of all measures necessary for securing the production of stocks of foodstuffs and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances so seized, in a court and for their safe custody pending such production.

(2) The provisions of section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) relating to search and seizure shall so far as may be applied to searches and seizures under this clause.

15. Power to exempt.— (1) The Government may, if it considers it necessary for avoiding any hardships or for any other just and sufficient reason, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any producer, dealer or commission agent from the operations of all or any of the provisions of this Order, either generally or for any specified period, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification.

Provided that no notification under this clause shall be issued except with the previous approval of the Central Government.
