(Only for those categories which are required to apply as given in Table 1.)

VI. Place of submission.— The application will be received in the office of concerned Taluka Office of Civil Supplies Department and/or at any of the local bodies at the village level.

SERIES I No. 3

Efforts will also be made to provide facility for filing application online.

VII. Procedure for approval and finalization of eligible priority household.— (i) Applications received will be scrutinized. Photograph and demographic details of applicant and/or other members of the household from Aadhar Data base or any other data base available with the Government for any other scheme may be used to avoid need for capture of fresh photograph and data of applicants and other members of households. This will also help prevent duplication and bogus cards.

(ii) Field verification may be conducted wherever necessary.

(iii) Before declaring any household as eligible, the Taluka officer will issue a public notice that he intends to include such household(s) in the category of eligible households and will publish it on notice board of his office and on the department website for a minimum period of 7 days.

(iv) Any objection for inclusion of any household in the category of eligible household can be filed with the Taluka officer within 07 days of publication of the list. The Taluka officer will consider the objection. Opportunity of being heard will be given to the applicant before rejecting her application in response to any such objection.

(v) After disposing of the objections received, the Taluka officer will include the applicant household in the list of eligible Household category and issue a NFSA card to the beneficiary as prescribed.

(vi) After this the Taluka officer of Civil Supplies within a further period of 30 days as a part of Social Audit will arrange to send the list of NFSA beneficiaries (pertaining to particular local body) so finalised by him to the concerned local body for their comments and objections, if any.

The local body shall place the list in the public domain for at least seven days to invite objections to the same & then place the same before executive body of the local body for its say on the objections, if any and recommendation to the Taluka officer. The local body shall return the list along with its objections, suggestions and recommendations, if any within 30 days of its receipt from the Taluka officer. The failure on the part of local body to return back the list as aforesaid shall have the presumption that the local body had no objections or suggestions to be made and that the list prepared by the Taluka officer shall be deemed to have been recommended by the local body.

(vii) The Taluka officer shall then after receipt of the list from the local body if received with any objections shall hear the parties concerned and accordingly correct the list of beneficiaries already finalised as per decision by deletion/ addition as the case is. The Taluka officer shall also send the copy of the decision to the local body concerned and the beneficiary concerned whose name has been deleted/added to the list within 15 days thereafter.

VIII. Procedure for implementing NFSA.— (i) The eligible households will be given the entitled quantity of food grains at the notified rates from the date to be notified by the Government. Allocation of food grains to the shops will be made accordingly and shop owners will be informed appropriately.

(ii) The Ration cards of eligible households, so determined will be printed or Smart Card will be issued afresh in a phased manner or appropriate system will be adopted as per decision of the Ministry of Food & Public Distribution, Government of India in this regard. Till the fresh card is issued the existing card will be endorsed as eligible card under NFSA, 2013 for the appropriate category i.e. AAY or other Priority household and these cardholders will keep getting the entitled food grains on existing Ration card.

(iii) Eldest female member in the household will be made Head of household as prescribed in the NFSA, 2013 and the new card will be titled as "Goa Food Security Card" (other than for institutions where Officer incharge of the Institution will be designated as Head of Household).

(iv) Photograph & other data of Head of Household & other members of the household will be taken and/or imported from UID or EPIC data base. Copies of Aadhar card of all the family members wherever available will also be obtained and fed into the database. An undertaking will also be taken from the head of the household at the time of issue of new ration card that the household doesn't fall in any of the exclusion criteria.

(v) The new Ration card data base will contain Aadhar numbers (wherever available) and EPIC (Electoral Photo Identity Card) numbers (mandatory) of all the major family members and this will be used as a KYC tool to avoid duplication. Non submission of copy of Aadhar Card (wherever available)/EPIC within the time prescribed by the department or knowingly submitting of wrong information in the form or undertaking shall lead to removal of the family from the list of AAY/Priority Category till such time requirement is fulfilled.

IX. Help Desks.— Help desks will be established in the office of each Taluka Office to guide the applicants and help them in filling up the application forms. The help desk will also do the preliminary scrutiny of the application forms and attached documents to facilitate submission of complete application along with the prescribed documents. This will expedite the sanction process and avoid inconvenience to the applicants.

X. Publicity and Awareness.— People may also be contacted through NGOs and Public representatives and through various other communication means.

Vulnerable households in existing survey data like socio economic and caste census, survey of homeless people in the State will also be contacted and encouraged to avail benefit. Wide publicity will be given to these guidelines.

Vikas S. N. Gaunekar, Director & ex officio Joint Secretary (Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs).
